PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS

Ours is a society in which there is a prodigious respect, verbally at least, for tradition. This has no great inhibiting effect on Member's activities since any event is, as we see it, liable to become a "tradition" as soon as it happens. Accordingly, should the tone of this address have a familiar ring to many of our Members, I too will appeal to our great doctrine of justification by tradition.

In spite of the disfigurement of the 1962 Annual General Meeting by an inane constitutional wrangle, less time was wasted on such matters in the preceeding year and more time was given over to non-partisan speeches, most of them about caving

Out in the field, however, the good name of S.U.S.S. was jeopardized once or twice by certain excesses, and the extremes whereby Prospective Members are either utterly repelled or mildly attracted have not been neglected. It is obvious that not everybody has the chartered aims of the society as his active credo. We do have, I am happy to say, quite a few new recruits this year and opportunities to teach them by example are lacking to nobody.

In closing I exhort the Members of our society to let 1962-63 be a year of gracious conduct - towards each other, to Prospective and New Members, to public authorities and to anyone with whom we have any dealings as Members of S.U.S.S.

CHRISTOPHER COURT.
President - 1961-62.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The past year has observed several things which would indicate a successful year for the Secretariat. Possibly the most encouraging of these was the registration of the S.U.S.S. Newsletter as a Periodical; a very long complicated process. This was most worthwhile as the Society now pays only 1/8 to post 180 odd circulars, against Three pounds or more before it was registered. Apart from this, no serious tangles with the Tourist Bureau have occurred, S.U.S.S. Productions Profit is well on the increase, and a bill for £265 Taxation has been abolished with the Taxation Department still happy.

SECRETARY - 1961-62.

RECORDS OFFICER'S REPORT.

Eight trip reports are on hand for the 10 trips made during 1961. This is something of a nosedive on the 1960 figures. Still quite a lot of work was done on such trips as have been reported.

At Bungonia, two small extensions in high levels of the cave that is still referred to by the unimaginative term, "B31", were found.

In the Mt. Fairy-Birkenburn area extensive reconnaissance has been done. It seems however, that Mt. Fairy is not worth the effort of finding the place.

At Jenolan, the combined trip with the Newcastle Society found three minor extensions of the Left Branch of the Northern River Passages totalling almost 500 feet. Most significant is a new portion of Central Level River. Also, chipping in "Henry's Hole" (temporary name) gave access to a pleasant climbing cave almost 100 feet deep.

Three surface exploration trips to Tuglow and Hollander's River revealed drops near the Tuglow River which are being checked this year.

An epic Colong trip sampled all forms of cold weather precipitation.

Bat Research continued. Cave localities investigated include Jenolan, Wee Jasper, and Wombeyan.

The reason for the decrease in activity is fairly obvious. It is that too few people are prepared to do the work of organising trips. To some extent this was due to experienced people leaving Sydney but more trips could have been run if Members were prepared to help organise transport etc., and bear some of the load after they decide to go. Of about 60 Members, 5 did the work of leading trips.

Still the situation appears to have righted itself with 7 trips already undertaken before May, 1962.

Henry Shannon.
Records Officer.
