EDITORS CORNER:

Well a year has passed and Tom has passed on the mantle of news Editor, to me bless his heart.

Hopefully as the year moves on I will get better at it and we will actually have something readable.

I have to take this moment to thank Tom immensely for the work he has put into presenting us with the Wet Rag over his term as Editor and the fact that he has provided me with the format intact and operating.

From the Club, Tom. Thankyou. From me, well I will tell you next year. No really, thanks Tom.

I also would also like to thank the outgoing committee members and a welcome to the incoming. The problem is they are one and the same people, except for Louise, Noel, and myself. Anyway, a big thanks guys & girls.

There is a very special thanks to Grey McNeil, but that is better said in other articles included in this edition.

I will take this opportunity to re-iterate what all past Editors have stated and that is, if you the members want to see an informative, entertaining newsletter, then I strongly urge you to write in with your exploits and interests. Yes that means you. Don't be perturbed if you think that your stories and letters are not worth listening to, or your writing ability is not up to standard. I can use a little poetic license to embellish if the necessity arises. You also just might have a flair that you may well not have recognised. So guys don't leave it up to me to write your newsletter, my job is to compile it.

Enough of the sermon.

Thanks to the immensely successful AV night, I feel we are off to a great start for the year, with a total revitalization of the meaning of this club, "UNDERWATER PHOTOGRAPHY".

Your New Editor

Duane Langley

PRESIDENT'S POSSIE

I am baaaaack! Due to popular demand I have been returned as your President.

My first duties this year as President were to thank our generous sponsors for the AV night and to hand over Tom's life membership award on a stage in front of 300 people. I now know how a gorilla at the zoo feels when a bus load of tourists peer into his cage. Nervous, that's an under statement, I lost about 2lbs in weight and aged two years. Still it was an experience I would not have missed for all the world.

What a great night. I personally had a blast meeting all the people and was embarrassed at the number that congratulated the Club through me for a great job. The real credit goes to Noel & Grey for their determination that made this show work.

I must admit that when they advised me they were going to show a very early episode of Sea Hunt, I had some misgivings, but after seeing how the crowd warmed to this video footage, I was glad once again that Noel and Grey were in charge of the production.

As the outgoing and the incoming President, both of us have to say how unimpressed we are at the turn out for our AGM. It was almost a foregone conclusion whom the new committee was going to be made up of. Apart from myself, I am happy to welcome back those that are serving a second term, even if it is under duress, and more than warmly welcome the new office bearers to the fray.

I do expect the general members to pitch in and help often to make the work load of the committee as light as possible. Don't just leave it up to us few. It is your Club guys.

You now have a new Social Organiser in Louise Bernstein and we all know how hard this position is, so make sure all you members give her a big hand out and give her the support she will require. This means attending the events organised. Don't blame Louise if the position fails, just look into the mirror for the culprit.

I attended the latest SCANS meeting at Rockdale Mon 6th, along with Noel Taylor at which there were some interesting topics discussed. These included the extension of the Solitary Island Marine Park, The up and coming SCANS Picnic day for November and it was also SCANS AGM. I will report on this at our next meeting.

Speaking of the meeting, please attend your next monthly, on the 20th of August.

Your President

Bernie Kraul

YOUR CLUBS AUDIO-VISUAL NIGHT REPORT

Yes!Yes!Yes, Saturday the 4th was a huge success. Once again South Pacific Dive Club proved it was the leader in presenting audio visual underwater award nights. The venue at the Greyhound Social Club, Yagoona was comfortably filled with all but a very few bums in the available seats.

At the very outset we, the club members owe a large round of applause to both Grey McNeil and Noel Taylor with their respective spouses for their support of these two, Vivien and Audrey. There would not have been a member of the Club that was present that would not have felt proud to be such a member by the end of the night. It is without question that our hats are doffed to these people for their tireless efforts to present such an outstanding event.

THANKYOU

GREY & NOEL

Having stated the above it is not be missed that there were many others that in no small part, participated in the preparations and without whom the success would not have been enjoyed. To name but a few, there was Bernie & Evelyn, Lin & Loi, Sue, Matt, Simon & Nicole, Scott, Tom, Martin and don't forget Vivien's Mom. If I have left out anybody, I apologise, and the thanks are still for you too. Last but by no means least, lets not forget our judges. For without their skill and professionalism, such outstanding results would not have been possible. Although I must make mention that I understand that the judges were suitably impressed by the quality of the entrants submissions on the whole.

So to;

Tom Byron

Gary Bell

Mark Welsh

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

To the Night:

From the moment the doors opened the people started streaming in, all in anticipation. No sooner had they passed the turnstile so to speak and received their bio of the night, than they then were greeted by the ravishing Evelyn offering directions to the raffle ticket table. It was in no small way that the success of the raffle was due to Evelyn's attraction. I do believe that Bernie thought that he may lose Evelyn as a prize from time to time. Well done Evelyn.

The screen asked people to take their seats and after some 20 minutes or so our master of ceremonies, John Pearson, started off proceedings.

As the slides kaleidoscoped up and down, over and through the screen with professional pizzazz, the room fell silent in delighted awe. That is until the winners were presented, from 3rd to 2nd to 1st in each division. It was then that those that recognised who the slides belonged to before the winner was announced, started to cheer with gusto.

It was between each little segment that sponsor APOLLO hats were won from drawing a number and the corresponding number inside each bio found a winner. "AV Bingo." This was a great interlude to the segments and kept everyone's attention. See our list of sponsors for the night in the thanks to sponsors section.

It was with great delight that the Club presented Tom Byron with a life membership to SPD award. Congratulations Tom.

Grey & Noel

The winners of the categories were presented with an array of prizes kindly donated by our sponsors. Both the winners and the sponsors are listed further into this edition.

After intermission the night moved into the video division and this too proved to be a big hit, with great quality video being shown. From the crazy to the deep and meaningful, they all kept us entertained.

To top it off the grand finale was an extremely early episode of Sea Hunt with the legendary hero Mike Nelson (Lloyd Bridges) cavorting about the ocean saving damsels from the perils of the deep. Oh! Mike, you're my hero. (swoon).

One can only say that if you were unable to attend, then put this on your calendar for next year.

This Spot Needs Your Story

Coming Meeting Points Of Discussion Corner

There will be this little spot from now on so that points that members would like to have discussed at the next up and coming monthly meeting can be noted.

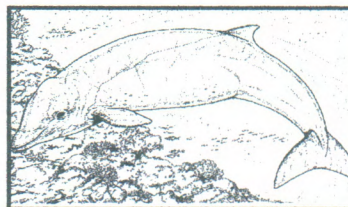

This is envisaged as an aid to enable all members who attend and even those that are unable to attend, to consider general business issues prior to them being tabled at the actual meeting.

It is hoped that by this we will get far more considered opinions re general business topics, rather than perhaps, issues coming out of left field and either, decisions being made hastily or unnecessary delays to making simple decisions.

E.g. I feel that there is a need for us to hire a very small storage unit for all the records etc and then at the following AGM, all that would be required, would be for the old office bearers to hand over the storage units keys to the new office bearers.

NEW MEMBERS ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND OUR CLUB MEETINGS AND DIVE OUTINGS

South Pacific Divers Club is a social scuba diving club whose members have a common interest in scuba diving and in particular underwater photography. Club dives are on our web site and not advertised in this newsletter. The club also organises weekends away at Jervis Bay and Nelsons Bay as well as other dive areas. We also organise once a year the Australasian Underwater Photographer of the Year Competition, open to all underwater photographers in Australia and overseas. We also have a slide show after every meeting. South Pacific Divers Club holds monthly meetings at the Bankstown Sports Club on the third Monday of every month. Meetings start at 8:00 and generally a slide show follows.

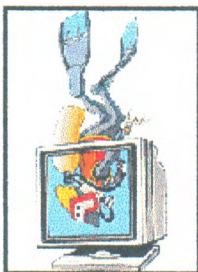

I wish to send the Wet Rag to as many members as possible via E-Mail, so could all of you who have this medium, please E-Mail me your up to date addresses as soon as possible. This not only expedites your receiving the Wet Rag, but also should save the club quite some funds once we have you all on board this method of mailing.

In anticipation of your speedy reply to this request.

Thank You.

SOUTH PAC NIGHT IN PERTH

As the photographic elite and their guests arrived at the Greyhound Social Club for the Australasian Underwater Photographer of the Year Night of Nights, on the opposite side of Australia in the Perth suburb of Bicton, similar arrivals were taking place. Neighbours didn't notice as totally unknown underwater photographers began arriving at the home of Peter and Margaret Nicholas. Peter is the defending title holder of the SPD Australasian Underwater Photographer of the year Award, but tonight he is in charge of the Barbeque.

Glen Cowan and his wife Louise slip quietly passed the crowds of waiting flowers in the garden. Glen is the defending the Novice title of the SPD Underwater Photographer of the Year.

Neil and Lyn Vincent arrived early, about four days early after being flooded out of the lush warm tropical north. Their tent leaked and they needed somewhere to stay so they dropped in.

Arnie, Kathy, Sophie, Luke and Daniel made up the numbers in this great social event on the WA calendar.

Being two hours behind the main event in Sydney allowed plenty of time for a few drinks and the telling of lots of tall photographic tales. By pre arrangement, Robb Westerdyk, a previous South Pac award winner, phoned through the results from the novice awards. Pandemonium broke out when Brian Caldwell got first and Gillian Torkler got third and Robb didn't know who was second.

Lacking the huge audio visual extravaganza of the main event we had put together our own slide show. Neil and Lyn showing what they had achieved during their 5 week stay in Exmouth with a 15mm lens that wouldn't focus and Glen showed diving highlights from around Perth and Rottnest Island. The grand finale was the great land photos by Louise, we all agreed not to encourage her to start underwater photography.

The phone rang again around 9.30, Janet, Robb's wife, wanted to speak with Lyn. Lyn was dumb founded, speechless on the telephone when she was told that she had been awarded the Rick Latimer Encouragement award.

Peter was told he had come 4th, the honourable mention and Neil was told he had been awarded 3rd place, which also came as a great shock but very pleasing. Mark Spencer getting second, you just can't keep the regulars away, the quality still keeps coming but Daryl Torkler,,, finally winning, brought a cheer from the gathered crowd.

It was pandemonium on both ends of the phone, we thanked Robb and settled down to have a drink and let the results sink in.

What success, in this room were three of the winners from the night. It would have been great to have been at Bankstown for the night but as this wasn't possible, the Western Australia South Pacific Underwater Photographer of the Year Presentation Night party was just as good. Next year we may have to have a web cam set up.

Hi Grey

My thanks and congratulations go to you, Noel Taylor and the members of South Pacific Divers Club for putting together a great event last night, and a very proficiently run competition. I found the presentation of competitor's slides and video clips was extremely watchable and gave a good overall view of the variety of entries. The evening flowed smoothly with no unnecessary delays and entertained everyone. You heard a number of people say how appreciative they were of the decision to continue with the competition, as I am, and I can only say that the value of the prizes sponsors are prepared to offer and the keenness of entrants to be recognised in your competition shows the regard people have for this event. Robb Westerdyk and I thought we'd get a table together from the Central Coast and word soon spread - we had 30 in no time and told the stragglers to ask at the door on the night.

I realise the difficult job it presents for the Club, and especially for just a small number of organisers as is always the case. However you did a great job, and I look forward to seeing it on again next year. Apart from everything else, I would like another crack at the video section! Thankyou. Maybe we'll see each other off the coast

Regards
Rod Pelling

Hi Grey,

Firstly... no mail 'till next Tues', I'm away on the rebreather course. Congratulations on such a fantastic presentation, I've had a couple of people who have commented on how well it went and did not drag out like the ones in the past. looking forward to the next.

Grey

A very big thanks from myself and Mandy, the night was a great success. I feel that it got back to basics, not to detract from the huge efforts of past organisers, but the last few presentation nights seemed to try and be too much, and lost their focus somewhat ( my opinion anyway)

Anyway we thoroughly enjoyed the night cheers

Phil Taylor

Grey,

was a great night you and your team did a fantastic job well done.

Regards,
Peter Foster

Grey,

Just letting you know that we had a great night "Southpaw in Perth" tonight. Peter & Lyn & Neil were all thrilled to hear that they'd won prizes. Peter did spoil things a bit by snooping on my "sent" mail and finding out what he'd won a while ago. But we didn't let on to anyone else so it was a good night.

We hear that the evening went well. Thanks for doing a great job of organising it all, we know how much work is involved!

Looking forward to seeing the complete list of winners and top 10. Are we going to get individual scores this time? It would be really useful if we can.

Thanks
Margy

The photographs taken on the night by Martin Kandilas are now scanned and installed, ready for viewing on the SPD web site. This is located at address
