General Business

John Sumner reported on a trip to the Swains soon which Ben Crap is organising also John has Barrier Reef Stickers available again.

Bob Pratt and Christing to be married soon and we all wish them the very best in the future.

Dennis Robinson is going to "Danger Reef" for the Sydney Museum on the 8th October to tag seals and study their habits and will be gone for four weeks. Dennis also mentioned that there was some talk on making parts of the Coast total ban for spearfishing and whether we were in favour of it.

He also gave us a run down on the latest "Skindiving in Australia" magazine which he says overdoes the spearing side a little but they hope to swing slowly to the Scuba side of things.

John Harding the Editor of "Fathom" mag hopes that more skindivers send articles into him.

Barry Lines has an article being published in the "Man" magazine in December on diving
