CARRIEDC. DIVE ACTIVITIES

New Hebridies: J. Hughes. Diving conditions were excellent. A report will be published in the next magazine.

Wooli: L. Reynolds. Visibility was good over Christmas and New Year. Range of fish species was exceptional this year and sharks were plentiful.

A club dive will be held at Currarong over the long weekend.

On 12th and 13th February, 1977, a club dive will be held at Shoal Bay with a view to diving at Broughton Island if conditions permit. Six boat owners indicated that they will be going. Meet at Shoal Bay Caravan Park.

D. PHOTOGRAPHIC REPORT

Seven entries have been received. Entries close at the March meeting.

E. SOCIAL REPORTChristmas Party

The "stayers" stayed and the "players" went home early. Many thanks to R. Arnold who transported the mob for a midnight swim. Budding swimming coach, I missed the name, commented favourably on J. Harper's breast-stroke style. Only one complaint was received and that was from J. Hughes who complained that as there were insufficient beds, he had to stay up and drink all night.

Wonder Woman

Thirty tickets will be booked for a Friday night.

F. GENERAL BUSINESS

Resolution 11: That only financial members received the magazine.

Moved J. Hughes

Seconded P. Harper

CARRIED

After some discussion on the club's almost embarrassing financial position, the Secretary suggested that members give some thought to the idea of buying a plant item for the club and present those suggestions at the next meeting.

Resolution 12: That we write to the Maritime Services Board and get specific information concerning the need for life jackets in divers boats.

Moved J. Hughes

Seconded L. Reynolds

CARRIED

The raffle was won by R. Arnold.

Slides were shown by P. Manly. Movies by G. Cameron.

The meeting closed at 9.55 p.m.

G. Ryan,
Secretary.
