Business arising from
the minutes:

Annual General Meeting for 1984 to be held the month following the A.V.
night of July 20th.

Correspondence:

Incoming: Neville Coleman suggested colour slides for his mag. instead Black and White as was originally suggested. Club to pay for re-prints.
Letter from Di & Phil North in Grafton thanking the club for flowers sent for the birth of their son Ian.

Outgoing: Bankstown Sports Club for reserving function room for club meetings every month.

Treasurer's Report:

BANK BALANCE $2,713.32
B/S $1694.96

Move it be accepted Pat Manly, Seconded Kim Kohen.

General Business:

Barry Davies from Sea-Tite products
has offered to sell the club at trade price projectors etc. for our own A.V.
Set-up. Pat to look into this further.
Stephen Wagstaff brought up the matter of only married people being allowed to pay the $10.00 couple membership.
A decision was made to accept any couple whether their status was married or otherwise. A unanimous vote by club members resulted.

Kym Kohen welcomed 2 of the ladies from the first aid course the club attended last month to the meeting. He told us of and injury to his leg which has resulted from Dr. C. Edmunds examination, in a 50% cut in his diving time.

Apparently, injured tissue absorbs more nitrogen than normal. Kevin Deakin also added that a professional diver in New Guinea was diving after hurting his shoulder, and actually got bent while strictly following dive tables.

Next club meeting any club members wanting to show slides are welcome.

Next club dive at Rose Bay wharf, 21.8.83 2 boats. Ross Hipwell dive organiser ph. 7734406.

Dive Reports:

Peter Stratford dived the Dunbar 19/7 only to find not coins as was hoped, but a body. Some unfortunate chap hap jumped it seems just half an hour before.

Stephen Wagstaff dived Norah head in crook conditions.

K. Deakin dived J. B. in terrific conditions with 40ft vis. Also dived the Dee Why in 100ft vis.

Martin & Peter dived the Tuggerah in a roaring surface current but with terrific vis.

Lyn & Pat dived Marly in good conditions and Barons Hut in no viz at all.
