PHOTOGRAPHIC OFFICERS

REPORT: Club comp results were announced tonight, with a screening at the end of the meeting. Pat reported a good roll up to the Photographic workshop on 5/11 and hopes that more will be sheduled in the coming year. A suggestion was put to members, that the club finance its own first prize in this years A.V. night and a vote was taken. 23 for and 6 against. Members agreed that providing the funds ~~were~~ available from the sale on the night of tickets and from entrants fee.

PUBLICITY OFFICERS

REPORT: The name the magazine comp was held tonight and after reading aloud the entrants, and all the laughter died down, a vote was taken on the most possible title for our diving mag. Unfortunately, the best response was to 'WET RAG' and we now have this dubious title to our monthly ~~magazine~~. The winner was Jim Smith ~~had~~ he took home a T-shirt and book kindly donated by Steven Wagstaff and a second book donated by Tom Byron. Our thanks to them for their support.

DIVE REPORTS:

The club dive this month was to Ulladulla and Peter Jermyn and Peter Strathford gave their reports. About 20 in all turned up and a good weeken was had.

Dawn reported her dives at Coff's were terriffic with good vis. but not so great at Byron Bay. Also up the Nth coast ~~were~~ Rcick and Annette Bewicke and they reported good viz and great diving with Sea Quest on Nth Solitary.

Kim Kohen reported a good day at the Terrigal Treasure hunt.

Pene dived Ship rock with the usual crowd, but good dive all the same.
