DIVE REPORTS:

Peter Stratford, Dived Jervis Bay.quote Stephen & Myself, with wife & brat, spent tweleve days diving Jervis Bay. Weather Sometimes Good. Someti Bad, seas sometimes rough, sometimes flat; dives sometimes good, sometimes bad, vis sometimes good, sometimes bad, Sometimes got scallops, sometimes not, sometimes speared, sometimes didnt. Dived the Wandra, vis 80 - 100ft.
3 dives at Point Perp, with vis fom 40 - 60ft, dives docks, hammerhead, merimbula. Got sick of eating scallops & had chineese on the last night.
Caught a large flathead on the scallop beds, in my fish bag, about 5lbs.
Martin K., dived the Bombo, onedive good one dive bad. Dived the Tuggrah with 6" vis

B.J., There is a new R.S.L. at Calala Bay, Dirty water diving, Terry M. stepped on a bango shark & it looked as if he had taken up ballet. Another great B.J. Report that is hart to capture as it hard to write & laugh at t same time. Wish he would write it down. Dives the Harbour & saw the New Endevour, & payed for a rock out crop, hoping to have new brass props for the wall.

Dawn S, all diving that had been done was in dirty water

Peter F, same story, shore dives, all dirty water

GENERAL BUSINESS:

A lengthy discussion , with regards to the saftey of a young diver that was attempting an Underwater Endurance Record attempt. With the result , of $100:00 being voted for as a donation to the charity concerned , with a letter to accompany, to be written by Audrey M, on behalf of the Club, pointing out the detrimental effects of such an attempt.

MEETING CLOSED AT 9.10Pm & all ajourned to the downstairs bar.
