PHOTOGRAPHIC OFFICERS REPORT

Martin presented the George Roberts in-house trophy to Neil Vincent. Advised the videos of the A.V. night are for sale for any interested persons.

DIVE REPORTS

Peter Stratford dived the Gap. Had a 'herbal life dive' similar to 60 Million Turd Reef.

John & Kathy McDermott, Doug & Penny Smith and Gerald Browne dived the plane in Jervis Bay and had a look at Smugglers Cave on the Sunday. On their way back they saw a seal in the Bay.

Brian Colwell and Neil Koos had a night dive at Shiprock. Excellent vis. Unusual dive along the top of the wall. Saw a moray eel which had a fish hook that went through its mouth and came out its eye and had healed up.

Neil and Lyn Vincent had 4 days at South West Rocks. Had 30-50' vis, 70' in Fish Rock cave. The cave was full of crayfish. Gutters had a couple of grey nurse sharks.

Lloyd Tape spent 7 nights at Truk. Dived majority of the wrecks, had 2 days at Palau and some time at Pohnpei.

GENERAL BUSINESS

Martin advised that Greg White of Corporate Theatre was mainly concerned with showing the winning slides of the A.V. to his own friends and colleagues.
A suggestion was made that we add another clause to rules re the use of entrants slides for this purpose.
Another suggestion was made that we get a guarantee Greg White won't use the A.V. for promotional purposes.

9.20 p.m. Meeting Closed.
