General Business

- 1st Round of the George Roberts Memorial Photographic competition closes tonight.
- 2nd Round of the George Roberts Memorial Photographic competition closes 21 March 2011.
- Perpetual Trophies to be returned next month.
- Water is exceptionally clear. Flying over Sydney Harbour on Saturday Afternoon I could see the wrecks of the Currajong and Centurian on the bottom from the overflying aircraft.
- Death of Diver of St George Scuba Club at Bare Island During the month on a night dive.
- El Pres involved in the Variety Club Bash in August 2011 from Baulkham Hills to Broom in Western Australia. Fund Raising Dinner on the Saturday the 14th of May. $100... 4 course meal and all the beer wine soft drink you can drink..... Ring Geoff Cook for info.
- Good response to Oztek 11 with 21 Gold Passes sold for the weekend of the 12 and 13th of March. Always a good place to catch up with the who's who of diving. Peter Jaques is so determined to go that he will be turning up between his Stepdaughters wedding and late reception.... Now that is dedication to diving.. Well done...

Diving Activity.

- Lots of diving happening. Mainly individual diving groups..
- Damien finally got to dive the Catterthun and has photos posted on his website
- Good reports back from Night Dive on the Currajong on the weekend. Very Clear water.

- Deep Drift dive on the Sir Joseph Banks wide out of Jevis Bay. Big Fish.. Clear Water.
- Club dive for Feb 13 was cancelled by United Divers ... Peter Jaques and Ian Dived same day to prove them wrong and had a great dive at Bass Point.... (Typical...)
- Club Dive Booked on Saturday the 26th Feb out of Rose Bay with Frenchman $50 for a double dive. Call Geoff Cook if you want in.

Meeting Closed 9.45pm.

Three films shown by Noel... Early diving at Oak Park taken by Peter Norris. And then two 1958 episodes of Sea Hunt.
