Greetings	4
Preface	5
Management of Karst Areas
National Cave and Karst Research Institute—Initial Activities; Zelda Chapman Bailey	7
Cave Management Plans: Targeting Your Audience; Bruce Bowman	11
The West Virginia Cave Conservancy: Growing Through Acquisition Problems and Their Solutions; Jeff Bray	12
Dying to Go Caving, 50 Years of Fatal Accidents in North America; Bob Buecher.	16
Karst Management in Urban Areas; Nicholas C. Crawford	15
Caves and Karst of the National Park Service; David Alan Ek.	16
The Hoffman Institute, Cave Research Foundation China Karst Scientific Program; Chris Groves, D. Groves, A. Glennon, D. Keeling, S. Fryer, J. Despain, Y. Daoxian, and D. Granger	33
A World Perspective on Cave and Karst Protection; Elery Hamilton-Smith	34
The Ozark National Scenic “Karstways”; R. Scott House	38
A Prerequisite to Managing Karst Systems: A Model for Evaluating the Basic Elements of Karst Development; Pat Kambesis and Chris Groves	39
Protecting Karst Resources Requires an Understanding of Karst Resources; Joe Meiman, Chris Groves, and Ron Kerbo	40
Performing Monitoring and Air Studies with In-cave Weather Stations; Henry Schneiker ...	41
Human Factors in Resource Management and Conservation Programs ... or ... Is it Good to be the King?; Daniel Smith	42
Karst Vulnerability Assessment Procedures and their Linkage to Forest Management Guidelines, British Columbia; Tim R. Stokes and Paul A. Griffiths.	43
Conflict Among User Groups; Jerry Trout	44
Lincoln National Forest, Guadalupe Ranger District, Cave Permit System; Ransom Turner	50
Management of Karst in Pleistocene Aeolianite; Susan White	54
Management of Specific Caves
The Geology and Management of Coyote Cave, Wind Cave National Park, South Dakota; Joel Despain	59
Restoration of Skull Ice Cave, Lava Beds National Monument; Kelly Fuhrmann.	60
Protecting Privately-owned Caves; Heather Garland	67
Developing a Cave Potential Map of Wind Cave to Identify Land Management Partners and Guide Land Management Decisions; Rodney D. Horrocks and B.W. Szulaski	71
Development and Management of Glenwood Caverns; Bob Koper	72
Leonard Springs Nature Park: A Karst Property Focusing on Conservation and Education; Kriste Lindberg	73
Management Issues and Threats to the Longest Cave; Joe Meiman, Hilary Lambert Hopper, and Roger W. Brucker	75
Lechuguilla Cave Culvert Replacement Project; Jason M. Richards	76
Cave Management Plans for an Underground Laboratory: La Cueva de Las Barrancas, Prototype Site for Mars Studies; Jim C. Werker and Val Hildreth-Werker	77
Geology and Hydrology
House Joint Resolution No. 161: a Legislative Mandate to Study Karst Groundwater Monitoring in Virginia; Terri Brown	89
The Mapping and Classification of Cave Geomorphic Processes with in the United States; David Alan Ek	90
Interagency Cooperative Sinkhole Protection and Karst Remediation in Virginia; Joseph H. Fagan and Wil Orndroff	101
Towards a Comprehensive Sinkhole Classification Scheme for Land Use Planning; Wil Orndroff and Joey Fagan.	104

Apokryptic (Concealed) Karst – A Problem for Resource Management and Rurban Development in Southern Arizona, USA; William D. Peachy	105
Evidence of Paleoseismicity in the Caves of Arizona and New Mexico (USA); Roberta Serface and Eric Gilli	106
Karst Water Demonstration; Sandy Trout.	107
Karst in Arid Australia; Nicholas White	109

Biological Resources

Temporal Variation in the Emergence Flights of the Bat, Myotis velifer , from Caves in Southern Arizona; Debbie C. Buecher	115
An Incidental Take Permit for Endangered Karst Invertebrates in Bexar County, Texas; Steven W. Carothers, K. White, and C. Berkhouse	116
Reasons Why We Should be Mindful of Microbes When We Consider Karst Systems: Impacts on Karst Development; Tricia Coakley, S. Wright, and L. Elliott.	122
The Missouri Cave Life Survey; William R. Elliott	123
A DNA Fingerprinting Technique to Survey Microbial Diversity in Caves; Rick Fowler, L.A. Breeding, J. Ovesen, C. Groves, and S. Sahi.	131
Cave and Mine Adits as Wildlife Resources in the Sonoran Desert Region; Kenneth J. Kingsley, T.R. Strong, and T.K. Snow.	138
How Much Surface Habitat is Enough? Preserve Design and Application for Cave-limited Species; Jean Krejca, L. O'Donnell, K. Kennedy, S.M.Knapp, A. Shull, and C. Delmatier.	141
Managing Endangered Species: Charting the Course of the Illinois Cave Amphipod with Non-lethal Censusing; Julian J. Lewis, Salisa T. Rafail, and Diane Tecic	142
Limiting Lamp Flora in Developed Passages within Mammoth Cave; Richard A. Olson	146
Cave Management at Fort Huachuca Successfully Protects Endangered Bats; Ronnie Sidner	147
The Karst Fauna Region Concept and Implication for Endangered Karst Invertebrate Recovery in Bexar County, Texas; Kemble White, Steven W. Carothers, and Casey Berkhouse	148

GIS/Mapping

Lidar Applications in a Temperate Rainforest Environment Case Study: Kosciusko Island South-eastern Alaska, Tongass National Forest; James F. Baichtal and Richard Langendoen	155
Sub-meter Position Accuracy with Garmin Handheld GPS Units (Real Accuracy, Real Cheap); Bob Buecher	156
Intensive Water Quality Monitoring in Two Karst Watersheds of Boone County, Missouri; Robert N. Lerch, Jeanne M. Erickson, and Carol M. Wicks.	157
GIS Applications for Cave Management at Jewel Cave; Rene Ohms	169
The Use of Cave Inventory Systems as a Cave Management Tool: An Overview; Matthew Reece	173
Raster GIS for the Management of Cave Reconnaissance Information; Henry Truebe	174
GIS Modeling of Significant Karst Areas for Purchase and Protection; George Veni, J. Chapa, G. Schindel, K. Nixon, and D. Stone.	179

Toxic Materials/Air Studies

The Role of Suspended Sediments in the Transport of Atrazine in Mammoth Cave, Kentucky; Michael S. Anderson and Joseph Meiman.	187
Threats to Public Health and Safety from the Proposed Kentucky Trimodal Transpark Warren County, Kentucky; Alan Glennon, C. Groves, R. Pfaff, L. DeMott, D. Hatcher, J. Neltner, and M. Thornton	188
Panama Ranch Garbage Dump Cave — Toxaphene and DDT Remediation; Homer Hansen, Butch Jackson, and Ransom Turner.	189
Planned Spill Retention and Runoff Filtration Structures on Interstate 65; Richard A. Olson and Jeffrey L. Schaefer.	190
Addresses of Primary Authors	191
