

N.S.W.: Hamilton

We have two personal photographs, which we understand were originally with a letter from Hamilton, N.S.W., describing '... a picnic to the Hamilton Caves'. Both show a picnic group posed in what seems to be a large overhang in coastal rocks, with a great deal of rock collapse. It is most likely that the Hamilton concerned was that which is on the coast just South of Newcastle.

