The backs, particularly of some of the later cards, were sometimes printed on stock that did not become available until after MacDougall moved to Western Australia. That together with the style of some prints suggests that Vogt was quite possibly the printer and publisher. But they are certainly MacDougall's images.

1. MACDOUGALL REAL PHOTO SERIES.

Ph,Pu & Pr James H.A. MacDougall
 F Real photo without margins ; title is hand-written in a distinctive and decorative script, using an ink which has dried to an almost golden colour. Identified as MacDougall from photographs and rubber-stamp on back of some cards.
