

Early VALENTINE SERIES. [n.l. 1908]

- Pu The Valentine & Sons Publishing Co. Ltd., Melbourne
Pr in Great Britain
F Title generally in italics; cards have serial number in lower R.H. corner which we use below.
A: Photograph in colour ; back is V3
B: Photograph in Sepia ; matt ; back is V3
C: Photograph in Sepia ; glossy ; back is V5
D: Photograph in ornate frame; back is V3
- 5A. 5A.220 The Pyramid, Buchan, Gippsland, Victoria V
(Title is in red Roman type ; The Pyramids are a series of tower-like limestone massifs near the Murrindal River) [pm. 29 July 1913]
5A.221 The Pyramid, Buchan, Gippsland, Victoria V
(different view to above) [pm.23 Dec.1913]
5A.222 Fairy Cave, Buchan, Gippsland, Victoria H
[ms.16 Mar.1913]
One example of this card is an interesting indication of the ubiquity of postcards in that it was mailed from Argentina in 1928.
5A.223 Fairy Cave, Buchan, Gippsland, Victoria V (different view) [pm.19 Apr.191621]
5A.224 Fairy Cave, Buchan, Gippsland, Victoria H (different view – the 10 foot stalactites) [ms.7 May 1913]
- 5B. 5B.224 Fairy Cave, Buchan, Gippsland, Victoria H [pm.7 Jul.1908]
(Again, the 10 foot stalactites)
- 5C 5C.224 Fairy Cave, Buchan, Gippsland, Victoria H [pm.7 Jul.1908]
(Again, the 10 foot stalactites)
We have seen (and copied) a copy of this card with a message on the back identifying Wyatt as guide to the caves.
- 5D (10 foot Stalactites in Fairy Cave)